Dear Mrs. Strickland,

You were kind enough to send me a ref. for Menasco (on 7-15, 1980)
and you also said you were waiting for copy of papers for your Thomas Carnay.

My reply from the La. State Museum, N.O., was they have no record of the James Menasco vs Thomasina Sigmuth Vol III p. 212 and Vol III p. 96, 101, 103.

Could you perhaps expand on where this ref. came from and perhaps with more detail, I can press them into finding this.
What "Index" was the ref. from?
(they say they do not have the Miss.
Terr. Papers.).

I hope you had success with your request and thanks for any further info I might use for Menasco.

Best wishes, Virginia

P.S. One of my "cousins" recently found a will in this ref. You might try for yours — Ref. is in:
NARISE BROOTIN Vol. 4 p 385,386,387,388
for Santiago menasco Aug 27-1802
we got copy from NOTARIAL Archives
421 Loyola Ave. N.O.La. 70112.

(Santiago is Spanish for "James" — the whole will was in Spanish! up to us to interpret but he is over!) They must have an Index for these volumes.

MRS. RALPH V. NORMAN

DE SOTO, TEXAS 75115

Dear Mrs. Strickland,

With all the "other" responsibilities we have had lately with disposing of elderly mom's house etc. and nursing home duties for her, I feel I've neglected either writing you since your Apr 19 letter or I failed to note my answer. Memory is not counted on here! So I must now apologize for delay if I failed to write.

Thanks so much for the Xerox copy of page 2 W. Fla. Archives and I was thrilled to see "Santiago Menasco succession & inventory" listed in Index as well as the James previously referred to. "Santiago" is "James" in English and he is one we located will for - 1802 N.O. La. So now I have more specifics to request his info. You must know how much I appreciate this info!

I'm still waiting, of course, for reply to my request for succession - Notarial Archives wrote that I should request this from Clerk of Court N.O. La. Full address, in case you had it, is: Clerk of Court, Civil Court District Court, Parish of Orleans, 421 Loyola Ave, N.O. La. 70112. Perhaps your Thos. Kearney succession is there, as well.

Again - if this is a duplicate

Mrs. Jean Strickland
72 Simpson Lane
Milton, Fl. 32570

Dear Mrs. Strickland:

How very nice of you to write and give me that early Miss. Terr. data! The name of James Menasco ref. you gave is MOST interesting-- in fact is the exact name we hoped to find. After writing the refs. and requesting copy of this court action James Menasco vs Thomasina Sigvatt, we will be waiting very anxiously, as you know. The dates involved will be our key of course, but since I am collecting all Menasco data, no matter which one it turns out to be it will be a great find.

I had references some time ago to a James Mansker in East Baton Rouge court records around 1823-30, so this may be the same one with the mixed up spelling that I find more likely than not.

Hope you have received your Strickland records, rather I see it was Thomas Carney as your interest in this case, by copy from this group of papers by this time. Usually we have good luck if the ref. is there to help them find it, otherwise there is not much hope of having someone even look in an Index. (Not since Roots came out and increased numbers of inquiries to all courthouse and record places.)

There has been so much to learn about the history of territories and States....since I did not have any interest during school years and considered it a waste of time....now, I have to pay for that lack of interest and study history to find out about genealogy. Since it is a great interest now, it is fun. I do appreciate your words about Spanish West Florida, as this certainly would fit into the locations we are dealing with with this particular Menasco (Manasco, Minesco, Monasco, Manazko etc!) that had children claim in 1880 their parents born in Ala. (about 1790-95).

Thanks again for your kindness in writing. We will keep the Thomas Carney name in mind during our research in this area as I would always want to return a favor if at all possible.

Sincefely,
Virginia Norman

P.S. In my line of Walsh-Conlin, I learned that my gr-gparents were married in Milton Fla. ca. 1868. License could not be located, but other descendants had recorded it. I knew Milton sounded familiar when I saw your address but took me a while to zero in on why.

Dear Mrs. Norman:

I read your query in Mississippi Genealogy and Local History, December 1979 issue.

I, too, am very interested in the Mississippi Territory at the early dates of 1775 - 1800 and have been trying to find out just what people were there that early.

In my research, I found there were, indeed, Menasco's in the Mississippi Territory between 1782 and 1810. This would have been in the southern part of the territory below the 31st parallel and would have been a part of Spanish West Florida at that time. Spanish West Florida included all of the territory below the 31st parallel from Pensacola, FL to New Orleans, La. That would be present day Baldwin, and Mobile counties Alabama and George, Stone, Jackson, Hancock, Harrison, Pearl River counties Mississippi.

The Louisiana State Museum Library, New Orleans, LA now has these records. The Index shows JAMES MENASCO vs Thomasina Sigvatt in Vol. IV, pages 212 and Volume VII, pages 96, 101 and 103.

My Thomas Carney is listed and his succession is given in these papers and I know definitely he was living in the Mississippi Territory at that time. I have written to see if I can obtain copies by giving the Volume and page numbers, but have not yet received a reply.

I hope this helps you some. Also I have found that there were some settlers in what is now Greene County, MS as early as 1775 and even one in what is now Jones County, MS in 1777. My Stricklands who were born at Ft. Claiborne, Monroe County, Mississippi Territory in 1804, 1805 and 1806 show in the later census that they were born in Alabama. This today is Monroe County, Alabama.

The part that I spoke of above as being Spanish West Florida became part of the Mississippi Territory on May 14, 1812 and much of south eastern Mississippi was considered to be in Mobile County at that time.

Sincerely,
